Like every GREAT artist who had been able to maintain a human perspective, she didn't believe that she was the center of the world, to be included in everything first What the Night Knows all others: John comes to realize that this was a curse. In this story we have the beautiful and talented wife who has rescued her husband from his traumatic past and taught him to love and trust .

Sadly, some What the Night Knows the others are not unimportant characters, so a little more info on them would have been t I was lucky enough to win an advance copy of this from Good Reads--Thank you! There were moments here when something started to break . It had some spooky moments, but overall it was more frustrating than frightening. One point a poor girl he just talks to is killed and dude drives away and doesn't say a word about it to his wife!
