In the congregation went so far as to issue a statement "invit[ing] priests and laity to discontinue all forms of propaganda with regard to the alleged apparitions and revelations". The light surrounding her was a true miracle, as the electrical current was shut off from the church, and the light remained.

After the weeping she was happy for them to enter a Poor Clares convent of perpetual virginity. One of the criteria for evaluating alleged apparitions is whether the revelation results in healthy devotion and spiritual fruits in people's lives greater prayer, greater conversion of heart, works of charity that result.
