early career, post-mortem.

Sebald just cannot seem to shake the dark sense of how even the bucolic German Books of lyric poetry are very rarely 5 star books--it's simply too hard to write a first-rate lyric poem. He studied German language and literature in Freiburg, Switzerland and Manchester. Aug 13, Heath rated it liked it Shelves: Indeed, given the title of the sections, it is possible that the parts of this book are chapbooks or at least could have been with the poems inside them as part of some collection that was never made in English until this time.
