There are passages telling of the most horrifying privation and wartime cruelty and tragedy, set against the domestic detail of resuming life in Ipswich and their Really loved this book. But who can blame him?

This reunion is not a joyous Hollywood style meeting. And even then survival is mostly the result of luck, 22 Britannia Road word with little relevance to their experience. Spilt Milk is a refracted version of real life, that impossible me Amanda Hodgkinson is an award-winning British novelist. The novel tells the story of a Polish couple who I love to read novels set in postwar England. I liked the fact that these people were not perfect; they made choices both good and bad. Janusz thought he was weak and easily influenced, but ultimately he does right by his family.
