This messes up the technique completely. Distance is determined by club head speed at impact, how well you strike it and the angle of attack of the clubhead steep or shallow. This creates tremendous clubhead speed while allowing the body to move relatively slowly and maintain control. If anybody wants then I can share that PDF. This is a very basic grip similar to Driving range Putting greens Club House: Hole 5 par 3 With a green protected by the water on the right and 2 bunkers on the left, this hole is of average difficulty and higher than the previous. Her articles have appeared in "Golf Journal" and on industry blogs. You are in 4 par 4 This is a long upward hole.
