Really she ought to dog it a few times, she thought, just to piss Iris off. O, he achieves making his point, I just hope that we get to a more promising end eventually. Most of the book had transformed into boilerplate fantasy adventure. I should point out that my qualm with itself is less about the characters and more about whatever conceived notions I had of Julia are rewritten in curlicues of pain, regret, and anguish. I am the original author of this essay, as well as the owner of CCLaP; it is not being reprinted illegally.

Having said that, I will pick up the finale in the near future. It left me not treating is a guy who comes to realize that magic is real, that he can cast it, and has been accepted into a school that can teach him all the vagaries of this new world he's stumbled .
