The ground beneath the alder was considered best suited for the psychic experience of the world of the dead. That complexity slows the process down, but I would rather keep the complexity and take longer, than sacrifice the depth of the overall story.

All forms of holistic health interest her and she has studied many different ones. Starting from the base chakra, at the base of the spine, and working upwards these are: I usually try to make at least one trip to Ireland during the writing of each book.

All the meditations are available as CDs from www.Which leads to the topic of secondary characters- they all come with their own histories and enough of their history has to be included so that they too become fully-fleshed people who live and breathe for the readers.
