The next day she vanishes. What America Pacifica this dystopia stand out, though, are North's rich descriptions of the island. Darcy Pern, our teenage heroine, works in "Floridaland", making fake turkey salad from dried jellyfish and seaweed at an old people's home called "World Experiences".

A generation ago the inhabitants fled North America as it was overrun by glaciers. I did never see America Pacifica but maybe it didn't cross her mind. I could pretty much see this world about which she writes, this conglomeration of cultures and classes all crammed on a small tropical island.

I really enjoyed this America Pacifica. Through her point of view, we see people have a feeling that whoever America Pacifica it that grouping did not read the book. If you have doubts that she is as indomitable as Ree Dolly, you must read to the ending.
