Plenty of parents have done so and plenty of children feel none the worse for it. Their behaviour in the house should be such that this becomes a habit. This should be our goal as parents; to raise children who will grow up worshiping Allah. Develop love and emotional attachment. There is much to disagree Raising Children In Islam in this regard; however, the blame cannot be placed solely on the parents. This, therefore, requires that parents, too, model their lives according to the Islamic way of life. The main character who is the role model of the stories should not possess deviations or bad characteristics.

Giving responsibility at an early and appropriate age helps the child realize of the Quran. It was asked of him:
