Russo I must be a mermaid... says: I can't help but read the barge captain's dialog in pirate:

While divided into two parts, it consists of a single narrative in a straightforward

It is least like a novel though— not in traditional sense.

People create an illusion together and then it is disintegrated by reality.

Not an erotic read, highly intuitive literary read into the working of the human

Tribute to Anais Nin published by Sybaritic Press learn more and order Having heard and been disappointed by my share of tribute music albums, I often approach tribute literature with a grain of salt in one hand and keep the other hand free just in case I have to yawn.
