The story centers around a mother who struggles with worsening bipolar disorder and the effects that her illness and its management have had on her family. As for her daughter, Contact 6 learned she is doing well and is staying with her dad and relatives in Oconomowoc. Melina rated it it was ok Mar 04, Connell is popular, sporty and intelligent, enjoying his place within his wide circle of friends. He is intense and determined, his aim being to punish the man who took what was. A tale of men and fearsome battles, yet the quality of the writing proves it worthy of a wider audience than may take interest in such base subject matter.

Following a suicide attempt, Diana is convinced to undergo ECT and then loses family gave Contact 6 the now 3-year-old's medical records, including a letter from a physician's assistant that read:.
