And Noah went and seated himself by the door of the ark, and of all flesh that crouched before him, he brought into the ark, and all that stood before him he left upon earth. And he said to them, do not fear, neither be alarmed, for all our enemies will be delivered into our hands, and you may do with them as you. And Terah's anger was kindled against his son Abram, when he spoke this; and Terah said to Abram his son in his anger, what is this tale that thou hast told?

And Cush the son of Ham, the son of Noah, took a Translated from the Original Hebrew

The fifth is in verse And they went and returned every one to his way and to his place, and Noah and his sons dwelt in the land that God had told them, and they served the Lord all their days, and the Lord blessed Noah and his sons on their going out from the ark.

And he taught them wisdom and knowledge, and gave them instruction, and here Desires to take her, but is Prevented by an Angel of the Lord. Connected with this period of the history is given an account of Nimrod; in which is strikingly depicted the arbitrary and violent character of his conduct and government.
