This new edition shows Austen brilliantly turn the everyday into the extraordinary. The stories in this book never fail to move me. I found that I fell into the rhythm. The first story in this book was so sad that I thought I wouldn't continue to read it. My friends are so mad that they do not know how I have all the high quality ebook which they do not!

Do you believe that this site violates a copyright? There is a distinct Celtic flavor. After I had read Far From the Madding Crowd I was determined to avoid Thomas Hardy for the rest of my life, such was my disappointment with a book which had such a glowing reputation.
